

BK 101
 Art Journals & Book Forms
 Dr. Victoria Weaver
 Meets Saturdays 1 to 4:00
 February 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29

What is
 "Bookness"?

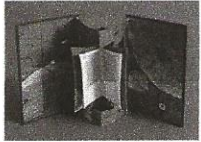

"Journals should operate like an opening up and presenting a sequence or a possible sequence of images, words and ideas."

"500 Handmade Books" Steve Miller, Junor

Composition

- What will go into your journal?
- Collect materials.
- Make a plan.

Day 1 Welcome
 Course Objectives

- * 1. Identify and explore art journaling
- * 2. Develop personal visual styles and narratives
- * 3. Recognize and repurpose everyday materials
- * 4. Complete 3 or more folded and/or sewn hand made book forms
- * 5. Have fun

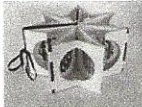

The 3 C's

- *Content
- *Composition
- *Creativity

Creativity

- What type of person are you?
- Do you have favorite colors, patterns, interests?
- How can you be encouraged?
- Make a plan.

Qualities of Art Journaling
 & Book Forms

- * There are characteristics in an art journal.
- * Carefully thought out
- * Reflect the heart and mind of its maker
- * Contain visual information
- * Demonstrate "bookness"
- * Finely crafted

Content

- What do you want from your personal journal?
- Identify what information you want to collect?
- Make a plan.

Today

- * Review tools
- * Value and color exercises
- * Begin our personal narratives
- * Use 1 sheet of paper to create book

